

Process leads to success

- Begin by writing out your outcome goals. What do you want to achieve?
- Next, describe what areas of your performance would need to be improved to get that outcome (performance goals).
- Finally, for each performance goal, detail out what process goals you need to work on each day / week to get the performance you want.

